REVIEWS FEATURE

Karen Patterson - Shoalhaven Entertainment Centre Manager

"I have worked with Melissa Langton as a producer and performer for more than 8 years on at least 5 shows. Apart from being a fabulous singer and generous performer, Melissa and her team are highly professional, no-fuss and easy to work with. And as an added bonus, their shows have always attracted good numbers and appreciative audiences."

Jenny Gay – Knox Community Arts Centre

I have been fortunate enough to work with Melissa to program a variety of Seniors music performances within our "Morning Melodies" Series at my theatre and have been highly impressed by both the quality of show that Winding Road Productions produces and the ease of booking and dealing with her. Melissa is extremely responsive, flexible, and provides all the promotional and technical resources required up front, which has made the programming process so much simpler. I have jokingly referred to Melissa as my un-official Artistic Director for musical performances, and I would highly recommend other theatres and events consider engaging with Winding Road Productions for future programming, to ensure the best quality performances are programmed at an affordable and reasonable fee.

Ken Cameron - Riverlinks Venues (Shepparton)

"Melissa is a great producer to deal with; prompt in her replies and providing information, which is what we all like as venue managers."

Vito Mattarelli – Clocktower Centre

Melissa Langton and Winding Road Productions have supplied the Clocktower Centre with several productions, and each one has been very well received.

Their marketing materials were great, the presentation and performances of a high standard and we receive some lovely feedback from our regulars.
